

Expected typical arrangement.

Small files fill holes near start of block group.

Large files fill holes near start of block group and then write most data to sequential range blocks.